

Cori Ross

Whistler artist Cori Ross strikes a cord with her bold dynamic artwork with innovative use of colour and simple lines. Cori creates a bright beautiful world with her richly intensified images that reflect mountain lifestyle.

Cori's creative influences are drawn from a lifetime spent in the outdoor playgrounds of British Columbia. Originally from the Okanagan Valley, winters were spent up at Silver Star Mountain and summers at Okanagan Lake. Cori's intense love of the outdoors, especially skiing and mountain biking brought her to Whistler over 15 years ago. Each one of Cori's paintings brings her passion for the beauty of nature into sharp focus.

Cori's Originals and Limited Edition Giclee prints are sold to buyers from around the world.

www.aboutcanada.ca

