

Jasyn Lucas

Jasyn Lucas was born in Flin Flon Manitoba in 1979. He grew up In Thompson Manitoba and studied at The Studio Art Program at Capilano College, in North Vancouver. He graduated in 2003 and returned to Thompson a year later where he has been exploring many different applications in art.

His current passion is depicting the scenes and wildlife on Canada, with particular emphasis on the Aurora Borealis (Northern Lights).

His works are gaining in popularity and are shown in galleries throughout Canada.

www.aboutcanada.ca