

David Daase

A sense of serenity permeates the beautiful landscape images created by artist, David Daase. Precision of detail and line, expertly combined with creative use of light, colour and composition, result in works rich in character, depth and beauty.

David makes his home in the heart of B.C.'s beautiful Okanagan Valley. He currently resides in Kelowna with his wife and three daughters, where he has built his reputation as one of Western Canada's finest landscape artists. His paintings and limited edition prints can be found in private collections and galleries throughout Canada and abroad.

www.aboutcanada.ca