

Gam Silver Studios

Gam Studios jewellery is designed and handmade by Gam Tran and his family.

Gam was born in Vietnam and after the Vietnam War in 1978, he escaped the war-torn country and made his journey to Canada. He started his own jewellery business in 1992.

Using sterling silver, freshwater pearls, and semi-precious stones. Each distinctive piece is designed and carefully handcrafted for functionality and practicality.

Gam likes to draw inspiration from nature, symbolic signs, and cultural influences. His products can be found throughout Canada in selective art galleries and gift shops specializing in Canadian hand-crafted products.
