

Lynn Moore

Lynn comes from an old Banff family. Her Grandmother was J.D Hansen, a well known Banff businessman and pioneer.

Lynn now resides in Cranbrook, BC, and has been a professional potter for many years.

For the maple leaf line she uses real leaves as the template. They are hand made from porcelain clay and most require three separate firings. The rich red of the maple leaves is gained by applying six coats of red glaze.

www.aboutcanada.ca