

Golriz

Painter Massoud Golriz is a gifted student of art with a Bachelor of Architecture from the University de Montréal. He studied oil painting and drawing at the école National Supérieure de Beaux-Arts de Paris.

He is a professor of drawing in free expression at the University of Montreal and has participated in over 100 artistic and commercial expositions in North America and Europe.

One of his loves is silk painting and we carry his scarves which are either hand painted silk or fine wool.
