

Karley Smith Jewellery

Karley's studio is on her family's 5 acre equestrian center in an amazingly beautiful part of British Columbia. She feels extremely grateful and inspired to be creating amidst such a glorious source of natural energy and beauty.

Karley has always been fascinated with nature's abundance and ever changing harmonies. It is her aim to inspire joy by sharing her love of natural beauty through creative expressions.

Karley Smith Jewellery does not sell direct to the public but can be found through select boutiques and galleries across North America, including About Canada of Banff.
