

Libby

Libby was born in 1966 in Brighton, England where she first discovered her passion and flare for art as a child. She studied visual arts, and gained awards for her work, in Ontario.

Libby is inspired by an image, a colour or memory and is driven to express this through an energetic painting process, where she is totally absorbed until the image is completed, and she is happy with the end result.

Libby lives with her husband and two children in Canmore, Alberta. Her work continues to evolve and includes a wide variety of subject matter.
